N°. 323.

WEDNESDAY, July 3, 1751.

MILAN, Jan. 26.

SEVERAL Regiments of Imperial Troops, which are in this Duchy, have received Orders to draw near to the Frontiers of the Territories of the King of Sardinia, and in Conſequence thereof they have begun to march that Way. 'Tis aſſured too, that the Court of Vienna has reſolved to ſend a large Reinforcement of Troops into Italy, on Account of a Diſcovery, which it is pretended has been made, that the King of Spain at the Inſtance of his moſt Chriſtian Majeſty, was upon the Point of declaring the Infant Don Philip Prince of Aſturias, and conſequently preſumptive Heir of the Crown of Spain. The King of the two Sicilies muſt neceſſarily take Umbrage at ſuch a Declaration, and is already, it is ſaid, taking Meaſures to render this Project unſucceſsful. It is further aſſured, that, in caſe this Scheme takes Effect, the Infant Cardinal will be put into Poſſeſſion of the Duchies of Parma and Placentia. The King of Sardinia, whoſe Daughter this Prince it is pretended, is to marry, will, it is ſaid, enter into this Project: But it is ſcarcely to be imagin'd, that the Empreſs Queen will ever conſent to loſe her Right of Reverſion to thoſe Duchies, which has been reſerved to her by the Treaty of Aix la Chapelle. So that we ſeem to be upon the Eve of freſh Troubles.

Madrid, March 9. Upon the freſh Complaints made by Mr. Keene, about the Engliſh Ships viſited and ſeized in the Weſt Indies by our Privateers or Guarda de la Coſtas, the Court has ſent over Orders for puniſhing with Death the Captains of ſuch Privateers, if it ſhall appear that they ſeized or ſtopped ſuch Engliſh Ships upon illegal Pretences.

Vienna, March 20. The Government has fined and inflicted corporal Puniſhments on ſixteen Perſons lately taken up, who were Members of an odd Kind of Society, conſiſting of Men and Women, link'd together by the Principle of having all their Goods and Eſtates in common; from whence reſulted another Way of poſſeſſing Things in common, which the indulged as far as they pleaſed. They aſſembled ſeveral Days in the Week, and, after ſome ſtrange and ridiculous Ceremonies, any Woman admitted into the Society under the Denomination of Siſter, was bound, upon a Brother's holding out a little Silver Hand to her, to keep his company the reſt of that Day, and conform, to his Will and Pleaſure in all Things. The Men went by the Name of Brothers of the Black Hat, and the Women were called Siſters of the Black Fig. Such being their Principles and their Pranks, it was high time for the Government to take them in Hand, and ſuppreſs ſo ſcandalous a Society.

Franckfort, March 25. By Letters from Worms we are inform'd, that they have lately had ſuch prodigious Storms of Wind, that Numbers of Trees have been torn up by the Roots in the Neighbourhood of that City, and that the Flying-Bridge, which was upon the Rhine, over againſt Oppenheim, has been entirely ruined by the late Tempeſts.

Peterſburg, Dec. 18. The Accommodation of our Differences with Sweden ſeems to meet with ſome difficulties, the principal of which is, that Crown's inſiſting upon the Reſtitution of the diſtricts of Finland, which were taken from it during the late War; and there is the leaſt Probability that her Imperial Majeſty will agree to any Treaty upon that Head. The Imperial Fleet will conſiſt next Year of about 80 Ships of the Line and Frigates, and about 200 Gallies and armed Veſſels. The Troops in Finland, Livonia, and the other conquered Provinces, amount to 100,000 Men, and it is aſſured that they can be formed into a Body in a very ſhort Time. Orders are ſent to all the Magazines to lay in a ſufficient Stock of Proviſions to ſupply the Army next Spring. Proper Meaſures have alſo been taken to bring a Number of Troops from the interior Part of the Empire, in order to employ them whenever there may be Occaſion, and it is ſaid that theſe will amount to double the Number of thoſe in the conquered Provinces, beſides the irregular Troops, ſuch as Coſſacks, Calmuks, &c. which are always ready upon the firſt Notice.

Liſbon, Feb. 14. It is impoſſible to expreſs the Bleſſings which all Ranks of People beſtow upon the King, for having begun to ſet Bounds to the uſurped Power of the infernal Tribunal of the Inquiſition. It is hoped that his Majeſty will not reſt there; for if he would prohibit the Confiſcation of Goods, no Body would be condemned in that Court.

Liſbon, Feb. 14. The King having preceived by a State of the Sugar Manufacturies in Brazil, which he had ordered to be laid before him, that, this profitable Branch of Trade was greatly decayed, owing to the heavy Duties on it for ſome Years paſt, hath reduced them one half.

Stockholm, March 5. On Advice of the Diſpoſitions making for ſending the Ruſſian Fleet to Sea as ſoon as the Seaſon will permit, the King hath given Orders, that the Swediſh Fleet ſhould hold itſelf in Readineſs to put to Sea, to cruize in the Baltic and exerciſe the Sailors. The Talk is renewed of ſending ſpeedily four Regiments from Sweden to Finland. The French Miniſter has received Orders to haſten the Departure of the Veſſels which are to tranſport to Breſt, and Rochfort, the Timber and other Materials for Shipping, bought up in great Quantities by the French in this Kingdom.

Hamburgh, March 12. We learn from Copenhagen, that ſome Perſons of that City have obtain'd a Patent from his Daniſh Majeſty to erect a Sugar-Refinery at Odenſee, in the Iſland of Fyonia.

The Affairs of the North ſeem to take a more favourable Turn. All the Advices that have been received from that Part of the World, give Hopes, that the Differences between the reſpective Powers will be amicably determined, but not by a Congreſs, which will take up too much Time.

Paris, March 15. They write from Terbes, that the Earthquake, which lately happened in thoſe Parts, had overturned a Mountain, which had filled up a neighbouring Valley. Laſt Night it blew ſo terrible a Storm, that in the Morning ſeveral Boats were found ſunk in the Seine. Some Chimneys were blown down, and a great Quantity of Tiles and Slates from the Roofs of the Houſes.

Paris, March 29. It is aſſured that above 200 Merchant Ships have been caſt away upon the Coaſts of this Kingdom by the late Storms.

Hague, Feb. 20. We have Aſſurance that France takes the utmoſt Pains to bring the Barbary Republics into her Intereſt, and to that End has made certain advantageous Propoſitions to them, and that ſhe would amply indemnify them for any Loſſes they might ſuſtain in breaking with Great Britain. We are alſo aſſured, that the Britiſh Court preceiving this Negotiation, has changed its Tone in regard to theſe Africans, and has ordered Mr. Kepple to paſs over certain Pretenſions, and do every thing in his Power to defeat the deſign of the French.

Hague, April 2. According to ſome private Letters that have been received by Merchants here, the Troubles in Perſia are greater than ever, the two Competitors Shah Doub and Nouth deſtroying, without mercy, the places which they are able to reduce.

Hague, April 6. The States of Holland and Weſt Friezland are to aſſemble Tomorrow, for which Purpoſe moſt of the Members are already arrived here. Laſt Night their Serene and Royal Highneſſes the Prince and Princeſs of Orange received an Expreſs

Express from England, with the melancholy News of the Death of his Royal Highness the Prince of Wales; and this Court will go into Mourning in a few Days on that Occasion.

From the Westminister Journal, March 30.

WE hear from Vienna, that on the 15th of this Month an Express arrived there from Constantinople, with Dispatches of such Importance, as to occasion the holding of Councils four Days, and that the Messenger was sent back with Instructions for their Imperial Majesties Minister at the Ottoman Porte.

The Master of an English Ship writes from Genoa, that they are building with great Diligence several Men of War at Toulon, and in other Ports of Provence.

We learn from Gibraltar, that Mr. Butler, the States Generals Consul, was arrived there from Mequinez, with a Treaty of Peace and Commerce, concluded between Muley Abdalla, Emperor of Fez and Morocco, and their High Mightinesses.

LONDON.

March 30. The Lords Commissioners of Trade and Plantations, to whom the Memorial of the Marquis de Mirepoix, relating to the Island of St. Martin, was referred, have reported, That it does not appear to them that the Crown has any Right or Pretension to the Property of that Island; and as to the English having taken Possession of Part of the said Island, it must be considered only as a natural Incident in time of War, Whereupon the Court has sent Orders to the Earl of Albemarle to impart this Report to the French Court, and declare to the Ministry, that Orders shall be immediately sent over to America, for causing the said Island to be evacuated by the English that may be found therein, and procuring a proper indemnification for the Subjects of his most Christian Majesty, whenever they come to take Possession of their old Settlements there.—

According to private Advices from Petersburg, the Vessels hired by the Government are destined for embarking a considerable Body of Troops, which are to make a Descent in some Part of Pomerania, in case of a Rupture in the North, and so divide the Prussian Forces; or else they may be landed in the Neighbourhood of Bremen and Verden, in order to cover those Territories, and be at Hand to act against Denmark or Sweden, or Prussia, as Occasion may require.

Account of Deaths of some very old Persons, viz.

Jan. 25. Died Mr. Nathaniel Whittle, aged 103, formerly a considerable Whitster of Linnen, in Essex.

Feb. 3. Died Mr. Thomas Pratt, in Southwark, aged 107, who had been a Cobler there upwards of 60 Years, who by his Industry had acquired upwards of £. 300.

Feb. 9. Died Lieut. General Borgard, an old Experienc'd Officer, in the 95th Year of his Age.

Feb. 20. Died Mrs. Alice Wise, at York, aged 108, commonly known by the Name of Dutchess Dalton.

March. 12. Died Mrs. Mary Wilkinson, aged 103, at her Lodgings at the Bankside, Southwark.

March 16. Died near Old Aberdeen, John Jeans, aged 104, who retained his Senses to the last: He had a numerous Progeney by two Wives, the last of which lived with him 53 Years.

And about the same Time died in Ireland, Mr. James Drum, aged 107, who wrought in his Garden the Week before he died.

ANNAPOLIS.

We hear from all Parts of the Province, that they have had a very good and plentiful Harvest: It is supposed that there is more Wheat made this Year in the Country, than ever was in any one Year before. And there is (God be thanked) a very good Prospect for fine Crops of Corn and Tobacco, all over the Province.

About a fortnight ago, a Negro Man in Queen-Anne's County having got into and robb'd a House of sundry Things in the Night, was heard in getting out, and pursued by the Man of the House, who overtook and seiz'd him, but the Negro, in the struggle stabb'd him with a Knife in several Places on the left Breast, but not mortally. He is now in Goal there, and will be tryed at their next County Court.

Last Saturday arrived here the Snow Swift, Capt. Dennis Dulany, from London, and will load in Severn for Mr. Hanbury.

Late last Night, one of the most audacious Robberies was attempted in Town, which perhaps has been heard of in this Part of the World: Two Men Arm'd, went to the House of Mr. Charles Cole, of this Place, Merchant, and having placed a Ladder up to a Dormant Window, one of them ascended and got into the Room where Mr. Cole lay, and having a dark Lanthorn and a Pistol, presented the Pistol at Mr. Cole, and told him if he offer'd to stir or make a Noise he would immediately blow his Brains out, then fell on him and tied him, and gave him several Bruises, telling him, his Money he wanted, and that he would have; his Accomplice was left below, to give notice in case of any Assistance; but Mr. Cole's Man John, who lay in a House close Adjoining, hearing some Noise, look'd out, when the Man below told him if he offer'd to stir or make any Noise he would shoot him Dead; but John fetch'd a loaded Piece and fired out of the Window at him, but missed him, on which he fired a Piece at John, loaded with Slugs, which narrowly missed him, but happily did no harm: This alarm'd the Man in the Chamber with Mr. Cole, and he made off out of the Window, leaving Mr. Cole bound in Bed, and, with his Accomplice, got off before any help came; and are as yet undiscovered.

WHEREAS it hath been currently Reported by sundry malicious evil minded Persons, that a certain Thomas Lambden of Worcester County, Merchant, hath used illgial and clandestine Methods, in order to obtain some Setts of Bills from me the Subscriber: I do hereby in justice to the said Lambden's Character, certify to the World, that the Report is Scandalous and False, without Foundation, and that the said Lambden is entirely Innocent of any such Thing, and that the Authors ought to be punished for their Assertions.

May 28, 1751. Wm. Williamson. WM. PROBART.

Mr. GREEN, Baltimore-Town, June 29, 1751.

AS I have been unjustly accused with breaking open a Packet of Letters, directed to Mr. Thomas Harrison, I desire you will communicate the Fact to the Public, which has given Rise to the unjust Charge, as it really happen'd, that my Conduct in that Affair may be impartially and fairly judg'd of: The Case was thus, On Tuesday the 25th Day of June, one Mr. Shepherd brought a parcel of Letters and Packets into Mr. John Ensor's Store in this Place, and a bundle of Letters tied with Packthread (but not sealed) Directed, [Letters for Baltimore-Town, to the care of Mr. Thomas Harrison;] which Bundle was supposed to consist of Letters for People hereabouts, and to have been made up on board the Ship in which they came, after her arrival in the Country, and not in England, as was truly the Case. Mr. Harrison being then at Annapolis, and the Bundle with so general a Direction [Letters for Baltimore-Town] and myself and others expecting we had Letters in it, I untied the said Bundle in the Presence of Mr. Ensor, and Mr. Philpot's Clerk, and took out a Letter for a Friend of mine, to whom I had an Opportunity of conveying it, and Mr. Philpot's Clerk took out three more for his Friends, and then tied up the Bundle again and delivered it to the said Shepherd; which, I think, no Gentleman cou'd take amiss, the Affairs were circumstanced. Your giving this a Place in your Paper will oblige,

Your humble Servant,

CHARLES ALDEN.
